Randall Sale.

November 28, 1882.

Compliments of who will attend to all bids.

PREFACE.

Most of these Coins and Medals were selected in Europe during the past summer. Among the pieces to which the attention of Collectors is particularly directed are the New England Shilling, equal in condition to that in the Bushnell sale that brought $51: the Gold, Silver and Copper Proof Sets of 1848, which it is believed have never before been offered at public sale; many fine Cents of the early dates; 1796 Half Cent; 1797 and 1801 Half Dimes, uncirculated; and 1795 Dollar, Fillet Head, in superb condition.
